SUBJECT: State and Federal Legislative Matrix

Following the enactment of the Fiscal Year 2005-2006 budget, the California State Legislature adjourned for a July 13th-August 15th summer recess. With lawmakers visiting their home districts, no progress was made on pending legislation. (Consequently, as of this writing on August 10th, there is no state update.) The attached matrix shows the disposition of state bills and constitutional amendments upon which SCAG has taken or is considering a position. Amendments to pending legislation must have been made by August 19th. Fiscal committees must have concluded their work by August 26th. September 9th is the last day to pass bills.

In Washington, SAFETEA-LU, the federal surface transportation bill, was passed by the Congress on July 29th and signed by the President on August 10th in a ceremony in Illinois. A separate agenda item in today's materials has been prepared for Regional Council and the Transportation and Communications Committee regarding SAFETEA-LU's highlights. The Congress now turns its attention to judicial appointments, temporarily leaving transportation issues behind. A SAFETEA-LU clean-up bill is already under discussion.
